Pressure on for Date for Withdrawal

By MARGARET GENTRY

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A double-barreled antiwar amendment appears likely to pass the Senate and move to an uncertain House fate, perhaps before President Nixon's next Vietnam troop withdrawal announcement Nov. 15.

The Senate amendment to the foreign aid bill would require total U.S. spending within six months and would cut off funds for American military operations throughout Indochina except the amount necessary for withdrawing forces and protecting the pull-out.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee said Saturday the amendment "should end the stalemate" and insure the swift return of U.S. soldiers and prisoners of war.

Senate debate begins Tuesday on the bill which would also limit U.S. spending and personnel in Cambodia and expand the committee's jurisdiction over all U.S. aid in Southeast Asia.

Although the House has consistently rejected similar amendments, the margin has narrowed to fewer than 30 votes despite vigorous White House lobbying against such measures.

Pentagon sources have indicated the President could announce a total withdrawal of American ground combat troops by next July and possibly sooner.

But the White House has given no indication of the magnitude of next month's announcement.

Governor Is Back in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov.

Dale Bumpers returned to Arkansas Saturday from a tour of Russia and Romania.

Bumpers, upon his arrival, expressed optimism about the prospects for a lessening of Soviet-American tensions. He said he was encouraged by attitudes of the Russian people and officials he and seven other governors met on his tour.

The governor told newsmen he came away with the idea that the Soviets were eager for a relaxation of tensions.

He said the touring governors expressed this thought in their meeting with President Nixon in Washington earlier Saturday.

He said he hoped that a possible visit to the United States by Soviet officials equivalent to the rank of U.S. governor would include a stopover in Arkansas. A White House spokesman said such a visit was in the planning stages. The touring American governors had extended the invitation.

Friday night a car driven by Michael Johnson 17, went out of control on a curve just north of Highway 29 and crashed into a telephone pole. Riding in the car were S. Latham, 15, Margaret Callicott, 14, Janice York, 15, Steve Allen, 15, and Mark Wright, 15. Nobody was seriously hurt. There was considerable damage.

City Officer James Rowe charged Johnson with speeding too fast for conditions of the road.

Living Cost Council Won't Rule on Every Request Individually

By GAYLORD SHAW

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The director of the Cost of Living Council says it "would be an incredible burden" for the Pay Board and Price Commission to rule on every requested salary or price hike during Phase 2 of President Nixon's economic stabilization program.

Instead, says director Donald Rumsfeld, he expects the panels to strike a balance between a case-by-case approach and the present all-encompassing wage-price freeze.

Rumsfeld stressed in an Associated Press interview that he did not want to preempt any of the board's options.

"...We have to recognize that the President created the Pay Board and Price Commission to make the decisions," Rumsfeld said. "And I think this is worth underlining. Those who have suggested that things are confusing because there's not a government edict on every aspect of this are wrong."

"The choice the President made was to have a process that would involve the Board and the Commission and they would make those kinds of judgments in an orderly way."

Meanwhile, Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., chairman of the House Banking Committee, called for an outright ban on corporate mergers during Nixon's Phase 2.

Many of the nation's price problems "stem directly from the concentration of economic power in certain industries," Patman maintained Sunday.

Secretary of Labor James D. Hodgson predicted the wage and price boards will focus on big industries such as the nation's 500 largest corporations.

Two Accidents Investigated

Two wrecks Friday were investigated by City Police. One involved a Land-O-Lakes truck driven by Galen Head who was making a left turn at Highway 67 and 29 junction and the back of the truck hit the hood of another vehicle driven by M. Eugene Guilhamins. City Officer Sulzer investigated.

The second involved cars driven by Jack H. Cornelius and Donna A. Sullivan, both of Hope. The Cornelius car pulled away from a stop sign into the path of the other vehicle. There was minor damage. City Officers Sinyard and Purdie investigated.

Sunday, said he expects the boards to proceed case-by-case with no fixed limits for acceptable wage-and-price increases.

In his interview Rumsfeld acknowledged that there have been complaints from the business community that businesses haven't been told precisely how Phase 2 will affect their pricing policies.

"...They will know in good time," Rumsfeld said. "The kind of information that the private sector needs to comply with will certainly be forthcoming."

Rumsfeld, a former congressman who is retaining his title as counselor to the President while heading the COLC, was asked, "Do you think it would be a lot clearer if a general wage standard were put out, rather than developing specific case-by-case standards?"

"If I said yes," he responded, "someone conceivably could take that and go to the Pay Board or Price Commission and say, 'This is what the COLC director thinks.' It is not helpful for the government to seemingly pre-empt options for the members by setting a narrow backdrop for their deliberations."

"The public school system in America is in utter chaos and is facing bankruptcy due to forced integration, forced busing and other illegal federal edicts," said Young, who is the national UCCL president.

He said that on the final day of the conference peaceful demonstrations will be staged in front of the White House, at the Justice Department and at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers and Lt. Gov. Bob Rife will speak at Veterans Day observances on the steps of the state Capitol at 8 a.m. today.

Violence Flares in Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — The Irish Republican Army struck back with bombs and bullets Sunday and today in retaliation for the killing of two women by British troops.

The weekend toll was six civilians killed and one wounded by troops and police, and five soldiers and one policeman wounded by snipers.

The policeman was shot in the head early today when he looked out of an upstairs window at his home after a knock on the front door. His condition was critical.

Detectives said they shot and killed a man, wounded a woman and captured another man Sunday after the trio planted a bomb that wrecked a Belfast night club.

The customers fled through windows and doors, and no one was injured in the explosion.

Police said the three terrorists, who were armed with automatic pistols, did not heed an order to halt, and officers opened fire.

Two sisters were shot dead in a car in Belfast, and three men were killed as they tried to rob a bank at Newry. The slayings brought the death toll to 133 in more than two years of civil strife in Northern Ireland.

Mobs attacked troops with fire bombs in Londonderry. Riots set fire to a lumber yard in Newry and looted shops as 3,000 mourners followed the coffins of the three men killed there.

The Irish Republican Army swore to avenge the deaths with "a life for a life." At a meeting in Dublin, IRA Chief of Staff Sean MacStiofain told a cheering crowd the underground army was launching a final phase "more intensive than anything so far."

Ruairi O'Bradaigh, president of Sinn Fein, the IRA's political branch, said the movement would force the British army to withdraw from Northern Ireland by bringing down the provincial parliament there and making the province "ungovernable."

Named a vice president of the Sinn Fein was David O'Connell, 33, who is wanted by British and Dutch police in connection with three tons of Czechoslovak arms seized Sept. 16 at Amsterdam. Authorities said the weapons were intended for the IRA.

Mrs. Mitchell Says Husband Wanted Friday

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Martha Mitchell, wife of Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, says the American Bar Association's judicial committee recommended that Herschel H. Friday Jr. not be nominated to the U.S. Supreme Court because he is an Arkansan and he has defended several civil rights cases.

Mrs. Mitchell, in an interview with the Arkansas Democrat, said her husband was "furious" with the ABA for refusing to support Friday.

Friday, a Little Rock lawyer, was understood to be the leading contender for nomination to the high court.

Mrs. Mitchell said she and her husband had known Friday for "some time" but they had not been "close" friends. "You can't find anything wrong with Herschel Friday," said Mrs. Mitchell.

She said that her husband was not the originator of the idea of Friday being nominated and she did not know who was.

Mrs. Mitchell is a native of Pine Bluff.

Prior to Speak At Awards Meet

Lt. Gov. Bob Rife will also appear on the program.

Diplomats See Possible Tie Vote on Whether to Oust Nat'l China

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomats said the race was still neck and neck today as the General Assembly neared a vote on whether to oust Nationalist China from the United Nations. Some said it might end in a tie.

The key issue was an American resolution to make the ouster an "important question," requiring a two-thirds majority for passage.

"We think we're going to win that vote," said a spokesman for the U.S. delegation. One diplomat friendly to the American cause figured they had a 58-57 or 59-57 advantage with more favorable votes possible.

However, another friendly diplomat calculated the vote at 59-58 against the resolution or a 58-58 tie. Other assessments were that from 58 to 61 delegations were ready to vote against it and only from 56 to 58 were for it.

Should there be a tie, a second vote would be taken within 48 hours. If the tie persisted, See DIPLOMATS SEE

Judgements of $5,000 Dismissed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court reversed and dismissed today two judgments of $5,000 each awarded by a jury against a man who was found to be on a "joint enterprise" with an automobile driver by riding in the car.

The unanimous opinion, written by Chief Justice Carleton Harris, came in a suit filed against the estate of Jack Wesley Johnson, who died in a traffic mishap that was the basis for the suit against his estate.

Johnson was riding in a car owned and driven by Miss Lois Ann Phelan on Nov. 2, 1965, when it crashed near El Dorado on U.S. 167 with an Arkansas Transport Co. tank truck driven by A. E. Greer.

Miss Phalen and Greer also were killed. Greer's survivors and the trucking company filed a suit for damages, but against Johnson, the passenger, rather than Miss Phalen, the driver.

The suit argued that both occupants of the car were intoxicated and that negligence on the part of Miss Phalen could be imputed to Johnson under the "joint enterprise" doctrine.

The Pulaski county Circuit Court jury awarded each plaintiff $5,000 damages.

The Supreme Court said that two elements must be present See JUDGEMENTS

The Baldwin Company of Little Rock was accepted as low bidder on Phase 11 of the development of the North Campus at Henderson State College Board of Trustees meeting Thursday on the College campus. Members of the board include James H. Pilkinton of Hope.

Doyle Williams, M.D., associate professor of surgery, University of Arkansas Medical Center, will be in Hope November 2 to meet with doctors of the area. The sessions are held in relation to various problems experienced by local physicians and the courses are extensions of new techniques and method is being taught at the Arkansas Medical Center.

There have been 309 auto wrecks inside the city so far this year with 75 persons injured and three persons killed.

Attending the Southwest District meeting of the Arkansas Federation of Music Clubs Saturday in Texarkana were District President Mrs. Arch Wyllie, Friday Music Club President, Mrs. Helen Hatch, Mrs. Calvin Smith, and Mrs. Arthur Wimmell. Appearing on the program were Mrs. Charles Snowden, David Pearson, and Mrs. Arthur Strech, all of Hope.

Mrs. Jim Pruden, President of the Arkansas Republican Women, was in Washington, D.C. last week for a national meeting of the group.

This is Veteran's Day in the U.S. and about the only observance here is the closing of state offices and the banks, possibly a few others. There is no special ceremony planned by any of the service organizations. However, downtown parking is free.

Brezhnev in Paris Under Heavy Guard

By STEPHENS BROENING

Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev arrived in Paris today on his first trip to the West since taking over the leadership of the Soviet Communist party in 1964. French security forces stood on alert for anti-Soviet demonstrations.

Brezhnev, successor of Nikita S. Khrushchev as head of the party apparatus, is here to press the French for a friendship treaty and to develop his image as an international statesman.

President Georges Pompidou greeted him at the airport and Brezhnev was given a 101-gun salute, an honor usually reserved for heads of state.

Brezhnev seems to be emerging as the main spokesman of the Soviet Union in its dealings with the West.

The Soviet government arranged live television coverage of Brezhnev's departure from Moscow and his arrival in Paris, something that hadn't been done for a Soviet leader since Khrushchev's days. One TV program was replaced Sunday night with a documentary on Paris and the magnificent welcome awaiting Brezhnev.

French performers and works are being featured all week on Soviet radio and TV.

The Soviet government information machine stressed that there was a direct relationship between Brezhnev's trip and "the easing of international tensions," another indication that the party chief is emerging as his country's chief spokesman on foreign policy.

The French are going along with Brezhnev's power play by treating him as the Soviet chief of state even though he isn't. President Georges Pompidou was going to the airport to meet him, and a 101-gun salute was readied for his arrival in the capital.

Brezhnev's envoys have been urging the French to sign a "friendship" treaty which diplomatic sources say would split France from the North Atlantic Alliance. French sources say Pompidou won't go this far, but the final communique after Brezhnev's departure next Saturday will stress agreement on such questions as Indochina, the Middle East and the proposed European security conference.

Behind the theatrical trappings there was concern that the visit will be spoiled by demonstrations or some isolated act by a refugee from communism. Extraordinary security precautions were put into force, including the deployment of provincial riot police units in Paris and the temporary exile to Corsica of militant anti-Soviet emigres.

The Russians are sending along 10 bodyguards for Brezhnev instead of the three originally planned. The reason, French sources say, is the attack on Premier Alexei N. Kosygin by a Hungarian nationalist in Ottawa last Monday.

Don't Expect Too Much of Nixon Trips

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — President Nixon has cautioned Americans not to have any "unrealistic expectations" about his forthcoming journeys to Moscow and Peking.

Speaking to the nation on Veterans Day eve, the President said the United States is ending an unpopular war in Southeast Asia, "while moving to prevent" other wars in the future.

"My trips to Moscow and Peking are directed toward that goal," said Nixon in a radio broadcast Sunday from Camp David. "We go with no false hopes, and we intend to leave behind us in America no unrealistic expectations."

Cold Front Expected on Tuesday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Early-morning fog that covered much of Arkansas was expected to dissipate by mid-morning today leaving the state under sunny skies.

A weak high pressure cell centered in Central Louisiana was expected to provide sunny and mild weather through Tuesday.

The National Weather Service said a cold front should move through the state Tuesday night or Wednesday triggering showers and thundershowers.

The extended outlook called for fair through Tuesday with a chance of showers Wednesday. High in the 70s and lows in the 50s.

Temperatures Sunday ranged from 66 at Harrison to 77 at Jonesboro and Pine Bluff.

Overnight lows included 42 at Fayetteville, 45 at Harrison, 53 at Jonesboro, 53 at Pine Bluff, 49 at El Dorado, 52 at Memphis, 52 at Little Rock and 51 at Fort Smith.

No precipitation was reported during the 24-hour period that ended at 6 a.m. today.

Shooting Case Taken Under Advisement

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Municipal Judge Henry Wilkinson of Forrest City has taken under advisement the question of issuing felony warrants in connection with a shooting Sept. 17 that left five persons injured at nearby Madison.

Wilkinson took the matter under advisement following a nine-hour hearing Saturday.

The open hearing, which resembles a one-man Grand Jury session, was initiated by Pros. Atty. Gene Raff of Helena, who said he preferred the open hearing so people could hear the testimony. Grand Jury sessions are closed to the public.

Wilkinson heard 42 witnesses during Saturday's hearing. There was no indication when or if warrants would be issued.

Trains Collide Headon in Japan, 13 Die

TSU, Japan (AP) — Two express passenger trains collided head-on in a tunnel today, killing 13 persons and injuring 188, railway officials reported.

Policemen and railway workers continued searching the wreckage seven hours after the crash at 4 p.m.

The dead included the two motormen and the two conductors of the trains, which carried 520 passengers, officials said. The victims all were Japanese.

Officials of Kintetsu Railways Co., a private railroad line, said the two trains smashed together in a single-track tunnel, and they were investigating why both entered the tunnel simultaneously.

The crash came on line between Nagoya and Osaka, central Japan.

Abbott Tells Purpose of Hospital

"Our purpose is serving humanity, and our objectives are to supply high quality care and service," Hempstead County Memorial Hospital Administrator Don Abbott told a meeting of the Hope Rotary Club on Friday, October 22, at the Town and Country. His appearance was arranged by Rotarian Dick Moore, who introduced him.

"Costs are rising everywhere," he said, "but those at Memorial are below the average of hospitals in Arkansas. The number of days spent in the hospital have been reduced because of improved medication and treatments, which is a benefit for everyone."

The new intensive care unit at the hospital was proudly pointed out, and appreciation to the members of the Hospital Auxiliary for their many services was expressed. There are now 124 employees at Memorial Hospital, and it receives no funds from the county, despite its name.

President Sam Strong welcomed the members and several guests, the speaker, his hospital co-administrator, Ray Woodward, Jim McKenzie of Prescott, and a visiting Rotarian, L. M. Burch of Texarkana.

the resolution would fail. Assembly President Adam Malik of Indonesia was said to hope the vote could come late today. But key delegations believed the voting would start Tuesday.

The "important question" resolution was crucial because the Albanian resolution to seat the Chinese Communists and oust the Nationalists is certain to get a majority in the Assembly but not a two-thirds majority.

The Albanian resolution was entitled to be voted on first because it was submitted first. But the United States had a motion pending to give its resolution priority.

The United States was also pushing a "dual representation" resolution to offer both the Communists and the Nationalists seats in the Assembly and offer the Communists the Chinese seat on the Security Council.

Peking has said repeatedly that they would have nothing to do with the United Nations as long as the Nationalists remain in it. Their supporters in the world organization say they mean it, but the Americans say there is no way to tell without trying them out.

The United States made one gain Sunday when officials in Rome said Italy would vote for the Albanian resolution but would abstain from the vote on the important question resolution. Many observers had believed Italy would vote against it.

Sources in Jerusalem said the Israeli Cabinet decided Sunday that Israel would vote for the U.S. resolution but this had been generally expected.

The 20 sponsors of the Albanian resolution planned a last-minute strategy session today to discuss whether, in case their resolution failed, a proposal should be put in to make the American dual representation resolution an "important question" needing a two-thirds majority.

to constitute a joint enterprise: (1) A community of interest in the purpose for which the car is being driven, and (2) an equal right to direct and govern the movement and conduct of each other in respect to the use of the vehicle.

The court disagreed with the jury's verdict and with the plaintiffs' contention that since both occupants were drunk and had participated in discussions at a truck stop they were on a joint enterprise seeking pleasure.

"We dare say many people become drunk and talk without being on a joint enterprise," Harris wrote. "We cannot perceive how any of the facts mentioned by the plaintiffs establish in Johnson the right to equal control of Miss Phalen's automobile."

In another case, the Supreme Court reversed and dismissed judgments awarded in Franklin County Circuit Court to Mr. and Mrs. James Parrish, turkey growers in Pope County.

The Parrishes won a judgment of $2,625 against Cargill of Arkansas, Inc. of Ozark, a turkey processor, and a judgment of $5,250 against Central Soya Corp., a feed manufacturer.

The suit contended Central, and Cargill as its agent, failed to pick up turkeys on schedule and that Central caused turkeys to be downgraded and destroyed by refusing to permit injections to protect the birds from common colds.

Associate Justice Lyle Brown said in the 6-1 opinion that the record reflected no expressed obligation on the part of Central to pick up turkeys on any specific date and that there was no substantial evidence that the absence of injections was a factor in the poor condition of the turkeys.

Lawyer Drunk, Burglary Case Reversed

By BILL SIMMONS

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The state Supreme Court, in a vigorously argued 4-3 decision, reversed today the bank burglary convictions of two men on grounds that they did not receive effective legal representation because their lawyer was drunk.

William I. Purifoy represented Elmer Eugene Franklin and Loyd Allen Reid, each of whom was given a 21-year sentence, the maximum penalty, by a Ouachita County Circuit Court jury.

The conviction Sept. 11, 1969, came on charges of burglary of the Bank of Chidester. Franklin and Reid had been arrested in the bank while cutting a hole through the vault.

During the trial, Bill Horton, brother-in-law of one of the defendants, went to Pros. Atty. John M. Graves and questioned the fairness of the trial, calling to the attention of Judge Henry Crumpler of Magnolia the

The Supreme Court majority, in an opinion written by Associate Justice John A. Fogleman, said that since evidence against Franklin and Reid was overwhelming, the real purpose of the trial was to determine the punishment and that the defendants hoped to escape the maximum penalty.

Physician Sons in Tribute to Parents

By SHEILA MORAN

Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Five physician sons have paid tribute to their Italian immigrant parents by lovingly awarding them mock medical degrees at an elegant dinner dance.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Baratta is believed to be the first in the country with five sons all of whom became doctors, according to the American Medical Association.

"Pop has a little more goodness than a lot of fathers," Michael Baratta, 43, the eldest son, told the gathering at the Pierre Hotel Sunday night.

"We all wanted to become doctors and he and Mom encouraged us every step of the way," he said. "We felt that to give them an honorary degree was the highest thing we could do."

In addition to Michael, an orthopedic surgeon in Canoga Park, Calif., the sons are Anthony, 42; Vincent, 39; and Ronald, 37, who are in joint practice in Lindenhurst, N.Y., and Frank, 33, a cardiologist in

That was when the sons presented their parents with the honorary degree in medicine, which proclaimed them "doctors."

Vincent Baratta, a spry 70, told the 150 guests that he deserved no credit for his sons' accomplishments but was proud of their achievements.

"I had the good fortune to raise my sons when discipline was popular and accepted," said Baratta, a pharmacist in Lindenhurst who also lives part of the year in Fort Lauderdale.

Jim: "One good time is when an opponent plays the king, but there are plenty of other occasions."

Oswald: "West's four-spade call was one of those all-purpose preempts. His partner might make four spades and he couldn't be hurt there. It appeared imperative to jam his opponents."

Jim: "North refused to be shut out. He stuck in a Blackwood four no-trump."

Oswald: "This led to a final contract of five hearts. West might have gone to five spades and taken a small loss, but the bidding had been most instructive. East was marked with an ace!"

Jim: "It was easy for West to find a successful line of defense. He led his singleton ace of clubs."

Oswald: "West still had the problem of deciding which ace his partner held, but East cooperated by playing the eight of clubs. He

Dear Helen:

We have a beautiful granddaughter, aged four, but her mother (now divorced from our son) thinks we spoil her. We're allowed to see her about four times a year, and then our daughter-in-law says that, after a day with us, it takes two weeks to "straighten her out."

Many times we have made appointments to have her visit us, only to be told when we go after her that we "came on the wrong day" or "sorry, something else came up."

We do not pamper Terri when she is with us. In fact, we are so on edge that we try to be strict and cold, which goes against our nature. If her mother saw us loving or hugging her, she'd probably snatch Terri away.

Our son is allowed visiting privileges, for which we are thankful. He brings Terri over to see us, but we are cautious about

Our doctor came right out and suggested birth control pills, as he believes an affair is better than an early marriage with several strikes against it - if, in fact, it were allowed. Is this the answer? —UNCERTAIN MOTHER

Dear Mother:

It's the answer many young people are settling for, but whether it's for your daughter depends in great part on her attitude - and yours. Guilt can not only ruin a romance but it may also damage a girl's self-esteem and make future relationships difficult until she comes to terms with herself - this especially if, later on, she suspects she has been "used."

I'd suggest she attend the counseling sessions offered by your local Planned Parenthood Association. Here, she'll gain insight into her true feelings, learn to assess her strengths and weaknesses (and his), and discover she isn't alone with her problem.

It might help if you'd sit in on one of these sessions, too - or at least have a talk with the director. You'd learn a lot about what youth is facing these days. —H.

Irish Topped From Ranks of Unbeaten

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The list of contenders for college football's national championship is down to seven today and certain to shrink even more in future head-to-head skirmishes.

The top eight teams in The Associated Press rankings were unbeaten before Saturday's action but sixth-rated Notre Dame's annual demise at the hands of Southern California—the score was 28-14—eliminated the Irish for the second year in a row.

Nebraska's defending national champions, top-rated again, rolled over Oklahoma State 41-13 while runner-up Oklahoma set a major college rushing record of 711 yards in trampling Kansas State 75-28. The Cornhuskers and the Sooners do battle Thanksgiving Day in Norman, Okla.

Third-ranked Michigan kept pace with a 35-7 victory over Minnesota. Alabama, rated fourth, and No. 5 Auburn kept rolling toward their Nov. 27 date in Birmingham, Ala. The Crimson Tide downed Houston 34-20 and the Tigers polished off Clemson 35-13.

First, however, Auburn must get by Georgia, a third South-eastern Conference challenger, on the road Nov. 13. The eighth-ranked Bulldogs turned back stubborn Kentucky 34-0 Saturday.

Notre Dame's defeat left seventh-ranked Penn State as the only unbeaten independent after the Nittany Lions clawed Texas Christian 66-14.

The only other major teams with perfect slates are Toledo of the Mid-American Conference and Cornell and Dartmouth in the Ivy League. If past voting is any indication, none can expect to reach the top.

Only Toledo is ranked at present and the Rockets, tied for 14th, stretched the nation's longest winning streak to 30 games by defeating Dayton 35-7. That tied the Texas teams of 1968-70 for the third longest winning streak of modern times and left the Rockets one behind Oklahoma's second-best mark of 31 set from 1948-50.

Rounding out the Top Ten, once-beaten Arkansas walloped North Texas State 60-21 while No. 10 Stanford suffered its second setback, bowing 24-23 to surprising Washington State on Don Sweet's 27-yard field goal as time ran out.

Oklahoma, as usual, was paced by zig-zagging Greg Pruitt, who gained 294 yards in 19 carries and broke Gale Sayer's single game.

Pruitt scored three times, Jack Milden added 156 yards and two touchdowns and sub halfback Roy Bell scored four times.

Another record-breaker was Michigan's Billy Taylor, whose 166 yards erased Ron Johnson's career rushing mark. Taylor has 2,522 and he also scored two touchdowns.

Alabama's Johnny Musso scored twice against Houston and set a Southeastern Conference career record of 212 points.

Auburn's Pat Sullivan passed for 230 yards against Clemson and moved into sixth place on the all-time NCAA total offense list and sophomore linebacker Mike Flynn scored on a fumble recovery and set up another touchdown with an interception.

Penn State turned Lydell Mitchell loose for 177 yards and four touchdowns against Texas Christian, tying Charley Pittman's one-season career mark of 14 TDs.

Georgia led Kentucky only 6-0 at the half but Buzy Rosenberg's dazzling 66-yard punt return and Jerome Jackson's pass interception set up two third-period scores that broke it open.

In games involving Second Ten teams, No. 11 Colorado defeated Missouri 27-7 and No. 12 Ohio State trounced Wisconsin 31-6 with Morris Bradshaw scoring on an 88-yard run and an 88-yard kickoff return. Louisiana State, ranked 13th, was idle.

Dan White threw for six touchdowns in leading Arizona State, tied for 14th with Toledo, over New Mexico 60-28; No. 16 Texas intercepted six passes and whipped Rice 39-10; Illinois surprised No. 17 Purdue 21-7; No. 18 Tennessee edged Mississippi State 10-7; Navy upset No. 19 Duke 15-14 and No. 20 Air Force shaed Colorado State 17-12.

Heart Attack in Game Is Fatal

By LARRY PALADINO

Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — What does a football player say after a game in which one of his teammates collapsed and died? What can he say? Words were replaced by tears and bowed heads as the Detroit Lions filed solemnly from their dressing room Sunday after a 28-23 upset National Football League loss to the Chicago Bears.

Chuck Hughes was dead. The likable, 28-year-old Lion wide receiver collapsed on the field with a minute left in the game and at 4:41 p.m., about an hour after the game, was pronounced dead at a nearby hospital.

Dr. Richard A. Thompson, one of two team physicians, said an autopsy would be performed today but added that cause of death was likely a ruptured vessel of the aorta, heart, or possibly the brain.

"He's dead, he's dead," muttered one of the Lions as he walked sadly from the dressing room after hearing the news.

"I'm horrified and shocked. He was a great player and a great person," said Lions owner William Clay Ford, his voice quivering with grief, in a filmed interview shortly after the tragic announcement.

"Everyone was praying a miracle would happen and that he would pull through," he added.

State Back on Winning Track

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Defending champion Arkansas State got back into the South-land Conference football race Saturday.

The Indians evened their SLC record at 1-1 with a resounding 35-9 slaughter of Abilene Christian.

Arkansas State and Southwestern Louisiana are tied for third place in the conference. Southwestern is 2-2.

Louisiana Tech is the leader with a 3-0 mark followed by Trinity's 1-0. Lamar, Abilene Christian, and UT-Arlington are all 0-1.

In other games Saturday, Southwestern tripped Lamar 21-20. Trinity trounced Northern Arizona 42-21. Louisiana Tech routed Northwestern Louisiana 35-21 and New Mexico State blasted UT-Arlington 20-6.

10 Turnovers, 60 Points for Porkers

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Would you believe 60 points despite 10 turnovers?

Ninth-ranked Arkansas lost six fumbles and had four passes intercepted and still beat North Texas State 60-21 Saturday at Fayetteville.

"It was the strangest game I have ever seen," said Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles. "I've never been a part of a game like this."

Arkansas could have put the game away in the first 10 minutes.

"The Eagles' first four possessions ended in a blocked punt by Jim Benton; a pass interception by Claude Irvin; a fumble recovery by Lewis Campbell and an incomplete pass on fourth down when the punter received a high snap and was forced to run.

In the process the Razorbacks took over at the Eagles' five, 15, 14, and 24. Arkansas scored on the first two opportunities, but quarterback Joe Ferguson lost fumbles on the other two possessions.

"They were intent on giving us bad plays and they did," Broyles said. "After scoring to 14-0, I don't know what happened we missed extra points and had them blocked, lost fumbles and had passes intercepted. It was a crazy game."

Fullback John Jenkins scored Arkansas' first two touchdowns, one on a one-yard run and the other on a 13-yard screen pass from Ferguson. Mike Saint, a senior starting his first game of the season, scored four of Arkansas' next six touchdowns — twice from three yards out and twice from five yards away.

The Razorbacks' other scores came on a 31-yard pass from Ferguson to Jim Hodge, a 44-yard run by Dickey Morton and a 15-yard burst by Steve Jones. Rick Shaw, a sophomore quarterback, kept the score respectable in the first half completing 12 of 22 passes for 227 yards and three touchdowns. After Arkansas made some defensive adjustments Shaw managed only two of 13 in the second half.

In the first six minutes of the second quarter, Arkansas went from 14-7 to 34-7 and Broyles inserted much of his secondary defensive unit. Shaw went to work and threw two scoring passes to make it 34-21 in the half.

"We didn't have to say anything to the players at half-time," Broyles said. "They knew North Texas State was coming back, but we also came back in the second half."

The Razorbacks finally convinced the Eagles in the first seven minutes of the third period. Saint scored on a five-yard run after Benton recovered a fumble at the Eagles' 49 and Morton zipped 44 yards after Jack Morris returned the punt 36 yards.

Four interceptions and three fumble recoveries plus Morris' punt returns gave the Razorbacks the best field position an Arkansas team has enjoyed in Broyles' 14 years.

Arkansas started 16 of its 21 possessions on the Eagles' side of the field.

Morris, who Broyles says is learning to be reckless on punt returns, took back seven for a record 146 yards. The Arkansas record of 136 yards was set by Lance Alworth against Tulsa in 1961.

Walter Nelson, who replaced Ferguson at quarterback in the third quarter, lost two fumbles in the fourth period. Broyles said Nelson and B-team center Steve King had never worked together.

King was in the game because starter Ron Revard was being rested; second teamer Stuart Freeland had a cut on his head and long-snapper Bill Carter was being protected.

Although the Razorbacks threw away numerous scoring opportunities, Bill McClard had enough chances to break the NCAA career kick scoring record of 185 points set by Texas Happy Feller. McClard needed seven points and got six. He missed two extra points and had one blocked.

"In my mind and his mind we think he got a little careless," Broyles said. "We tuned him every time he kicked and he was a little slow. He went back and kicked the last two normally."

SMU Coach Argues Way to Victory

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Southern Methodist Coach Hayden Fry hopes the critics will get off his back on the Gary Hammond issue.

You remember Fry moved the multi-talented Hammond to quarterback after consecutive All-Southwest Conference seasons at flanker and tailback. Fry also installed the intricate "Flying Wishbone-T," and the Mustangs came unglued in the early season like a 50 cent baseball.

Hammond has now engineered the Mustangs to consecutive SWC victories over Rice and Texas Tech. The latter by an 18-17 score Saturday on an 80-yard drive sparked by Hammond in the fading minutes of the fourth period. Hammond nailed Louis Scott with a 14-yard pass for the winning touchdown.

"I've had my critics," Fry says. "But I'm hard-headed. I still think Gary is a good quarterback. That was the type of

Bobcats Knocked Out of Conference Race

By BILL MOORE

Star Sports Writer
Last Friday night the Hope Bobcats, victims of key mistakes, fell to the Magnolia Panthers, 19-12, to fall out of the 7AA title race.

Hope's seasonal record drops to 5-3 while they fall to 3-3 in the conference. Magnolia lifts their seasonal record to 6-1-1 and keep their district slate at a perfect 4-0 stand.

For the first few minutes neither team could mount a drive until Magnolia took possession of the ball with less than one minute in the first quarter. Immediately into the second stanza, the Panthers scored on a pass to Johnny Kincaid and took a 7-0 lead on Andy Rogers' extra point kick.

Minutes later the Panthers scored again after intercepting a Bobcat pass. This time it was reserve quarterback Doug Rich scampering around right end for a 49 yard gallop to paydirt with only 2:27 left in the half. Although the PAT failed, Magnolia held a 13-0 margin.

Hope, on the ensuing kickoff counterpunched with a 64 yard scoring drive in just six plays and a minute and a half, with quarterback Robie Boyd hitting flanker Buddy Ingram on an 18 yard touchdown pass. Tim White's PAT was partially blocked but the Cats had narrowed the margin with the first half running out.

With the start of the second half, the Bobcats started the fire works early when they took the opening kickoff and started from their own 26 yard line.

Using bits of yardage on runs by Ray Wheelington and David Johnson, the Cats moved up to the 38 yard line and then on a first and ten situation, Ingram took the handoff and hit the left side. Finding daylight with some good blocking, he broke 62 yards to paydirt and the Cats needed only one point to tie the Panthers. Going for two points to take the lead, the attempt failed.

Again Magnolia proved to have offensive power as the Panthers took the kickoff, and with good running, moved the ball to the end zone in 17 plays, using up just a bit over eight minutes to consume the drive. This time quarterback Ken Barker did the scoring honors, going in from one yard out.

Neither team threatened hard during most of the fourth period until the Cats began to move the ball in the last two minutes of play, but a Cat fumble killed the drive and the game.

Tonight the B-Bruins are scheduled to travel to Fairview game he needed for his confidence. I needed it to reassure my faith in him and the team needed it, period."

Fry says Hammond drilled the ball "like he has been doing in practice. Maybe now he has the confidence he needs to drill the ball in the games. I know Scott has been wide open all year."

SMU now is the only unbeaten team in SWC play besides Arkansas. The Mustangs own a 2-0 record while the Razorbacks are 3-0.

In other games Saturday, Arkansas mashed North Texas 60-21, Texas routed Rice 39-10 to push its SWC mark to 2-1, Texas A&M nicked Baylor 10-9 on Pat McDermott's 53-yard field goal, Alabama downed Houston 34-20 and Penn State bopped Texas Christian 66-14.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal brings his Longhorns to the Cotton Bowl Saturday for a key game with the Mustangs and added he was particularly proud of the Rice victory.

Royal said the victory "was one of the most important since 1968 when we opened with a tie and a loss. It was a must game to keep the program going and personal pride as far as the team is concerned."

Halfback Jim Bertelsen said, "I feel like we can still have a respectable season—four more teams—beat 'em good and we will compete."

Rice Coach Bill Peterson said, "Our kids didn't give up. Someday we will have an offense...someday we will have a defense...and someday we will compete."

Texas A&M's McDermott kicked his field goal while the Aggies had only 10 men on the field.

Traditional Veterans Day Observances

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traditional speeches, parades and wreath-layings mark Veterans Day today but there also have been a peppering of protests, including those by some of the men being honored.

Some veterans were boycotting the celebration to protest the switch in the holiday date.

Traditionally Veterans Day has been observed on Nov. 11, the anniversary of the armistice that ended World War I. But starting this year, it falls on the fourth Monday in October as one of a series of holidays for which the dates were changed by Congress to provide three-day weekends.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars announced it would not participate in ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery because most veterans cannot be buried there.

Rapidly dwindling space at Arlington led the Defense Department several years ago to limit burial there to those who died in active duty, those on the military retired rolls, Medal of Honor winners and high government officials who served in the military.

Ceremonies elsewhere in the nation included a schedule at Austin, Tex., marked by a televised noon memorial service, a concert by an Army band at Camp Mabry, open houses by veterans' organizations, and a parade.

In New York City, the traditional parade sponsored by the American Legion of New York County and the VFW was expected to march 4,000 servicemen to march.

Jim Davis, national coordinator of the Vietnam Veterans against the War, urged antiwar veterans to march in parades in 50 cities across the country. Davis said members of the group, which claims a nationwide membership of 20,000, would participate in New York City's parade wearing combat gear, carrying model guns and performing mock guerrilla tactics in the streets.

Tech Remains Unbeaten This Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bill Breedlove rushed for two touchdowns Saturday night to lead unbeaten Arkansas Tech to a 28-10 victory over Missouri Southern.

The victory raised Tech's record to 7-0 for the season.

In other Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference action, Ouachita edged Harding 21-19, Southern State defeated State College 35-14, and Henderson whipped the University of Arkansas at Monticello 13-10.

Cornell Williams scored four touchdowns as Southern State whipped past SCA.

Williams scored on runs of 14, four and six yards and caught a 15-yard touchdown pass. Cleo House, who ran 25 times for 98 yards, scored the other Mule-ender touchdown on a one-yard plunge.

Agnew Ready to Report on His Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew is home, ready to tell President Nixon what he learned of the Greek dictatorship, what he heard from Emperor Haile Selassie about Communist China, and, perhaps, about the flavor of roast peacock served in full plumage near the Persian ruins of Persepolis.

Agnew has disclosed little about the substance of his formal conferences during a 14-day journey of nearly 17,000 miles to Ankara, Turkey, to Iran's royal anniversary camp at Persepolis, and to Greece, the nation of his forebears.

In Ankara and Athens, Agnew said he had conferred about matters relating to NATO, and that he had renewed confidence in the commitment of those governments to maintain the southern flank of the alliance.

A spokesman said Agnew would deliver his report to Nixon sometime this week.

Fully half the trip was spent in Greece, in Athens and at his father's birthplace of Gargalianoi, and on the islands of Crete and Rhodes.

While Agnew said he was confident Greek Prime Minister George Papadopoulos intends to restore representative government, the joint appearances and the sentiment of his trip there, which sometimes had the flavor of a political campaign, could only strengthen the efforts of Athens to show that the present authoritarian regime is all right with the administration.

There was no public indication Agnew had applied pressure or persuasion for steps toward representative rule.

The journey took Agnew from a restrained reception in Ankara to the cheers, myrtle and laurel boughs, flower petals and church bells of a hero's welcome on tour in Greece.

There were crowds at every announced stop. The government encouraged big turnouts, but the receptions seemed genuine and warm.

Between the capitals of Ankara and Athens, Agnew spent three days at the luxurious desert camp built by the Shah of Iran to commemorate at Persepolis the 2,500th anniversary of the Persian throne.

It was there that he talked to Selassie, the emperor of Ethiopia, who was just back from Communist China, and gained information he said would be of interest to Nixon. He would not disclose its nature.

There, too, in the splendor of a Persian feast in a 242-foot-long imperial big top, Agnew discovered he has a taste for peacock, especially when it is flown in from Maxim's in Paris.

But Greece, obviously, was for Agnew the highlight of the journey. Two of his daughters joined him there. Thousands of Greeks applauded and waved small American flags as he drove into Athens on Oct. 16. Two American-owned automobiles had been damaged by small bombs early in the day, but there was no hint of dissent as Agnew arrived.

There were two announced conferences with Papadopoulos, and one three-hour talk, the longest, at the prime minister's suburban home.

In Athens, Lt. Gen. George Zolakis, the regent acting in the absence of the exiled King Constantine II, awarded him the Grand Cross of the order of George I for "distinguished service ... in the development of relations between our two countries."

For all the formalities, Agnew was never more visibly moved than when he stood in a sand-floored soccer stadium at Gargalianoi to acknowledge his reception in the birthplace of his late father, born Theofrastos Spyros Anagnostopoulos.

The town had been scrubbed and whitewashed. Its narrow streets were packed with crowds many times its population of 7,000.

Agnew visited the grave of his grandfather. Neglected but days before, the gravesite had been trimmed, its cross straightened.

On the island of Rhodes, Agnew visited the ruins at Knossos, sat on the throne of the legendary King Minos, and quipped "I'm not quite ready for this yet." There, too, he was applauded along streets strewn with fragrant myrtle and flower petals.

In Greece, Agnew said the United States obviously prefers to see democracy wherever possible, but the fact that other governments "are not as representative as ours" shouldn't prevent cooperation when mutual interests are at stake.

He also said he believes President Nixon will exercise an option to override a congressional ban on U.S. military aid to Greece, now being considered by the Senate.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, Printed by Offset Says Women's Rights Going Too Far

By GREGG HERRINGTON Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., doesn't care if women are bartenders or wrestlers, but he doesn't want them drafted or using men's restrooms.

And, if an amendment to the U.S. Constitution guaranteeing equal rights for women becomes law, Ervin says, those things and more will have to be sanctioned by courts that are merely living up to the Constitution.

Supporters of the amendment say Ervin is wrong.

Ervin, third-ranking Democrat on the Senate Judiciary Committee and architect of moves that killed the measure a year ago, is plotting new tactics for the 1972 renewal of the battle.

Ervin has promised Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield he won't block action on the amendment in Sen. Birch-

Bay's constitutional amendments subcommittee. In return, Ervin has been guaranteed that the panel will not even bring it up for consideration until after Congress returns from a Christmas recess.

Meanwhile, Ervin will try to persuade others on Bay's subcommittee and the full Judiciary Committee, of the constitutional amendment's "shortcomings" and try to enlist their aid in adding a few so-called corrective amendments.

Bay's forces say Ervin's changes would nullify the measure's effect.

"We know Ervin's game," said one staff aide to Bay's subcommittee. "He wants to give the courts enough of a loophole to drive a Mack truck through the whole purpose of the thing."

One move, Ervin said, will be to seek approval of a change nullifying the constitutional amendment's application where there are physiological or functional differences between men and women.

Ervin said he will then push for addition of language that would exempt women from the military draft, preserve their privacy and other protections.

But, Ervin said, "What it gets down to is equal employment opportunities." He said most women would be happy with equal pay for performing equal work and his changes, he contends, would provide for that.

"It would allow women to be bartenders where it is now outlawed and still let them be wrestlers if they want," he added.

Ervin said in case the Judiciary Committee rejects his changes, he hopes to line up enough support to kill the amendment on the Senate floor.

60 Million Using Bank Credit Cards

NEW YORK (AP) — Sixty million Americans are using bank credit cards to charge purchases at a rate of about $8 billion a year. But the profit bonanza envisioned by banks is yet to materialize and many merchants have become disenchanted.

Some financial sources estimate that banks lost an aggregate $115 million on their credit card operations in 1970 and that they are likely to go even deeper into the red this year.

Difficulty in generating a profit from the proliferating card business is attributed to customer fraud, theft, default on account payments, mismanagement, collusion by merchants and the high cost of processing records of transactions.

The American Bankers Association reports that 9,111 banks are involved in card operations, some on their own and many in association with others.

The number of merchants accepting bank cards is estimated by industry sources at 800,000.

Banks stepped into the credit card arena in 1951 on a local basis. In 1966 the operation became national when Bank of America of San Francisco began franchising its BankAmericard to other banks throughout the country.

Bank cards are used mainly for retail purchases while cards issued by American Express, Diner's Club and Carte Blanche are used primarily for travel and entertainment.

Master Charge, issued by an association of banks called Interbank, is the biggest bank card operation, with sales volume of $3.4 billion in 1970. BankAmericard was second with $2.7 billion.

Another big one is Unicard, issued by Chase Manhattan Bank of New York. Chase says it has two million card holders and 30,000 merchants in its system in nine states. Chase declined to disclose Unicard's dollar volume.

Mrs. Colbert left Sunday via American Airlines for San Diego, to attend the funeral which will be held Tuesday, October 26, in that city.

Messages may be sent to Mrs. Annie Mae Block 3104 L Street, San Diego, California.

Mrs. Estell Warren of Prescott passed away in a Prescott hospital October 23, 1971.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Would it pay society to pay students for behaving well in school rather than poorly?

Instead of punishing students for bad behavior, Dr. Edward T. Ladd, an Emory University educator, suggests rewarding them with a salary of $10 or so a month for good behavior. He believes money for such a pioneering project might come initially from foundations.

We swat many insects and feel superior to them, but they can do many things we cannot. For example, the long, slender-bodied dragonfly has wings thinner than fine paper, but it can fly at a speed of 40 miles an hour.

It has been said that a committee can never accomplish anything worthwhile. But it was a committee of religious scholars in the 17th century which produced the King James' translation of the Bible, still regarded by millions as the greatest in the English language.

America isn't exactly winning its battle against being engulfed by our own debris of living. Each of us now generates an average of six pounds of garbage each day. That's twice as much per person as we did 50 years ago.

If you want to lose weight and the doctor says your heart is healthy, tennis can be one of your best forms of exercise. It can use up more than 10 times as much energy as you'd expend plodding after a golf ball.

Quotable notables: "A man with Christ in his heart can outsmart all others." —Ruth McKenney.

Jingle, jingle: U.S. coins vary in popularity throughout the nation. Silver dollars have practically become a symbol of the free-wheeling West, particularly in Las Vegas. Nickel, for some reason, are favored in Baltimore, and quarters in New York State. Pennies have lost their status so much that if you see anyone bend over to retrieve a dropped one, you automatically assume he's over 40 years old and sentimentally remembers when the Lincoln one-cent piece was the chief prize and financial reward of childhood.

Executive signs: On the desk of Jules Podell, Copacabana night club owner: "When a man stops anticipating, he starts wilting."

Fading Stripes: Typical of the animal species facing extinction is the Bengal tiger. There were an estimated 40,000 of these beautiful creatures in India during the 1930s, but according to the National Geographic Society, only some 2,000 remain alive today.

Worth remembering: "The young man who thought the world owed him a living becomes the old man who blames the world for his failure."

Exit lines: The dying words of Charlemagne were, "Lord, into thy hands I commit my spirit." Prince Albert, consort of Queen Victoria, reportedly said, "I have had wealth, rank and power; but if these were all I had, how wretched I should be." Robert Burns murmured, "Don't let the awkward squad fire over my grave." King Henri VIII cried: "All is lost: Monks, monks, monks!"

Stag trip: When migrating, male red-wing blackbirds travel together. Their wives and girl friends make the flight a few weeks later.

Tribute by Agnew to Veterans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew honors the nation's veterans today by placing a presidential wreath at the Tomb of the Unknowns as antiwar protesters start a year-long campaign to oust President Nixon from the White House.

The Pentagon has placed about 2,000 soldiers and Marines on alert at three military bases within 30 miles of the capital in case violence erupts at the demonstrations planned by the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice.

The coalition, which sponsored the massive Mayday protests here last spring, plans rallies through Tuesday.
